Curriculum links: Language Arts, Social Studies

Preparation Time:

- 10 minutes

Implementation Time:

- Day 1 (45 minutes) Day 2 (45 minutes)

Resources Needed:

- Grade 2 Worksheet 2

Activity Description:

The student will create a schedule from the time they get home from school until bedtime and prioritize activities.

Lesson Guidelines:

- Lead a discussion around activities in which students participate after school.
- Show students how to record activities on their time charts (one night).
- Discuss a typical scenario where the student has multiple activities to accomplish in one block of time (e.g. T-ball game, homework, household chores, etc.). Explain they will have to prioritize.
- Explain the concept of prioritization and have student complete the chart that night.
- On Day 2 discuss the charts and continue the discussion about prioritization.
- Discuss related conflicts and processes used to solve conflicts.

Activity Enhancements:

- Expand the chart to a week-long activity.
- Have students share their schedules in small groups and discuss conflicts and solutions.
